Friday Evening Dinner – Come join us for food & fellowship. You will meet the nicest people at this show! The dinner provides a place to get to know each other and enjoy some good Midwest cuisine. Registration form online.

Contests – This year we will feature a scroll sawing contest which includes fretwork, intarsia and an open class. We have held the scroll saw contest for many years so it is very well defined – rules and other info are listed on the website shown below. We will also have wood turning and wood carving contests. These are newer to the show, so less well defined. Rules and info will also be listed on the website when available. These contests feature some of the most amazing work being produced around the country! Ribbons and prizes are awarded.

Show & Tell Tables – this area is for any type of woodworking and features some of our show attendees finest projects. This area provides a great opportunity to swap ideas, share tips & techniques, and meet lots of folks who share your interests.

Classes, Seminars & Demos – Free on-floor demos and a full line up of pay-as-you-go classes and seminars will be available on both days. Details for all of these will be available on the website as details are finalized.

Scroll Saw Corral & Pen Turning Areas – Volunteers from The Veterans Freedom Center will guide you through the process of using a lathe to make your own pen or let you try your hand at using a scroll saw. They can answer your questions and get you pointed in the right direction. You can then take home the items you have made.

Vendors – The line-up of large & small businesses varies from year to year but generally they will offer tools, lumber, patterns, supplies and finished projects. Let us know the contact info for any business you would like to see at the show or have them check our website for vendor applications and information.
